CORRESPONDENCE COURSES: Cadets are highly encouraged to enhance their General Military Training and General Military Knowledge. Correspondence courses are a prerequisite to advance to the next grade and must be completed every 6 months according to the Statement of Understanding.

RECRUIT TRAINING: Sea Cadets are required to complete the E1 and E2 course before attending Recruit Training (RT). League Cadets attend Navy League Orientation instead of Recruit Training and must complete Part I of the Syllabus before attending. See the Book of Knowledge and Statement of Understanding for further requirements.

DISCIPLINARY REVIEW BOARD: Commanding Officer and Executive Officer will conduct a Disciplinary Review Board (DRB), when accusations of wrongdoing are reported. The accusation will be investigated, and action will be taken to correct the matter in a professional and military matter.

UNIFORMS AND SUPPLIES: Cadets that require new uniforms, who have lost uniform items or who have uniform items damaged MUST fill out a supply chit on the Flying Tigers Website at least ONE WEEK PRIOR TO DRILL so that the Supply Petty Officer has time to retrieve items needed and bring them to drill. Damaged or lost items will not be replaced without cadet paying for lost or damaged item; this includes sea cadet ID, ribbons, appurtenances, and any and all issued items.

BERTHING: Cadets and Officers will be staying the night on some drill weekends supervised by staff cadets and officers. Cadets will bring a sea bag with uniform of the day, personal hygiene, PT gear, sleeping bag or blankets with pillow, and a cot or air mattress. A sea bag list will be provided. All items on the sea bag list MUST be packed and brought to drill.

MILITARY BEARING (DISCIPLINE):

1. All cadets must maintain a clean appropriate uniform with polished boots/shoes!
2. All cadets must maintain presentable grooming standards, including appropriate hair cut for males and hair tied back and in a bun for females.
3. Any male cadet that arrives at drill with a non-compliant haircut, will receive a free buzz cut.
4. All cadets will always keep military bearing and discipline.
5. All cadets will always use proper customs and traditions.
6. All cadets will always set the examples for new recruits.
7. All cadets will always conduct themselves as professional cadets and leaders.
